EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Coraline J. Haitjema on 7/21/2010.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claims 1-7 are cancelled.

Claim 8: line 1: delete "obtainable" and insert thereof --is obtained--.

Claim 12: line 6: delete "not as racemic mixture" and insert thereof --in enantiomeric excess--.

Claim 14: line 7: delete "not as racemic mixture" and insert thereof --in enantiomeric excess--.

Claim 15: line 3: insert after consisting of: --adhesives, printing inks, detergents and cleaning applications, paper and paperboard applications, textile, leather and carpet applications, construction compounds, pigment compositions, mining compounds, cosmetics, and coating compositions--.

Claim 15: delete lines 4 through 13.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The instant claims are neither taught nor suggested by prior art. There are no teachings or suggestions of a rheology modification agent and its applications wherein said rheology modification agent is obtained by reacting one or more polyisocyanates with optically active carbon-substituted methylamines of formula (I) in enantiomeric excess or by reacting one or more reacting one or more polyamines with optically active monoisocyanates of formula (II) in enantiomeric excess as claimed.

The pertinent art includes Kurosaki (JP 2000-226442) which teaches a urea compound produced by reacting polyisocyanate with methylamines. However, Kurosaki fails to teach the optical activity as well as enantiomeric excess of optically active methylamines or monoisocyanates.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
